The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Rogers of Andree Avenue continues seriously ill.

Bowling Notes

Sidelights on This Week's Games

By LAWRENCE CROWELL

Friday—Paxman's Tigers made it two out of three after losing the first game by 111 pins to Sam Levy's Clark, for the winners, having three big games, totaling 639. Paxman was low with 418. Too many open frames for a bowler like you, Pax. Richards, who replaced Chas. King, rolled his first game for a 538 total, a nice game! Levy's splits in all, but as that they had a good series. Palmer had two out of three games donated by Ed Kelly's, or rather by Gipe, who only rolled a 368 total with 12 blows. Too bad, Dale, you had such a bad night. Fix, of the winners, was the only man with a 200 game.

Tuesday—The Columbia Steel Corporation made it three straight from Paxman's Tigers, due mostly to the fine rolling of Bill Davis, who had games of 235, 222, and 212; total, 670—high series for the league. With a little luck in the last game Bill should have gone well over the 700 mark, but two ten-pin touches in the eighth and ninth frames held him back.

The City Trustees were handicapped by having three dummies roll, so "Hardware" Reeve took three easy games from the city officials. Hulton rolled three nice games for the winners for a 517 total. Murphy also had a good series with a 203 game in the lot. Spud looks better every week. Watch him, slickers; he'll be after

Mr. Smith is the grand knight of the Torrance Chapter, Knights of Columbus, and was responsible for much of the success of the Sunday program.

Mr. and Mrs. George Proctor and Mrs. Nettie Steinhilber, of Gramery Avenue, were entertained Sunday at the home of Mrs. J. C. Baker of Whittier.
